MAGISTRATE NO. C-06-724

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There are no conditions or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; and
- (2) There are no conditions or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure the safety of the community.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. These findings are without prejudice. The defendant is a United States citizen with no criminal history. If the defendant is able to produce a solvent co-surety and third party custodian, the matter of bond will be reconsidered.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 20th day of October, 2006.
